Please bring your registration form and payment to your first class, as the teachers will be collecting them. The registration forms and the full calendar of the Church events and school are also enclosed.

The children practice their parts for these programs during two rehearsals that take place the two Saturdays prior to the actual program from 10:00AM – 12:30PM. The younger children who have smaller roles do not have to participate for the entire duration of the rehearsals.

Classes for adults in the Greek language will continue in the fall. Please contact the church for further information.
